

V Corps deputy picked from 1st Infantry Division

By U.S. Army Europe Public Affairs

Jan. 24, 2011

HEIDELBERG, Germany -- Brig. Gen. Ricky D. Gibbs has been assigned as deputy commanding general of U.S. Army Europe's V Corps, the Army chief of staff announced Jan. 21. Gibbs most recent assignment was deputy commanding general (maneuver), 1st Infantry Division and deputy commanding general (maneuver), U.S. Division-South, Operation New Dawn, Iraq. Gibbs began his military career assigned to 3rd Battalion, 28th Infantry, 8th Infantry Division (Mechanized) in Bad Kreuznach in 1982.

Also announced:

5th Signal Command Commanding General Brig. Gen. Jeffrey G. Smith Jr. has been assigned as the deputy commanding general for proponentcy, U.S. Army Cyber Command in Fort Belvoir, Va.